SPIRITUALITY FOR THE SECOND HALF OF LIFE:

Wisdom from the Carmelite tradition

Saturday, March 17, 2012 | 10:00am | Continental Breakfast, Prayer Service and Lecture

All are invited to join the Carmelite Institute on Saturday, March 17, 2012, 10:00 am for the Annual Endowed Carmelite lecture!

Very Rev. Jack Welch, O.Carm.

Very Rev. Jack Welch, O.Carm., former Provincial of the Chicago Carmelite Province, will speak about spirituality for the second half of life --wisdom from the Carmelite tradition.

The reward for a carefully constructed first half of life may be an invitation, in the second half of life, to let it crumble. Carmelite saints were not spared this painful experience. The Carmelite tradition was founded on, and sustained by, bruised egos and unraveled lives. Any wisdom in the tradition has been hard-earned, and probably worth hearing.

Free. Open to General Public.

9:30 AM - Continental Breakfast
10:00 AM - Prayer Service and Lecture

Location: Washington Theological Union
6896 Laurel Street NW
Washington, DC 20012
